To My Dear Friends,

You have reached a crossroad. The familiar surroundings of your well-received youth will soon grow cold to the coming grounds of your future. But fear not what awaits you for you've been prepared. The past has taught you how to learn, listen, grow and decide. Use these gifts wisely. Your life is now a clean canvas; paint it as you choose. Use the colors of your past to shade your days of tomorrow.

Make bold lines of red with your integrity, standards and beliefs. Never let anyone tell you who you are; always be strong.

In knowing yourself, you will want the inviting kindness of orange to listen to those in need and to help those you can. May you find within yourself the understanding to know the difference.

With this understanding, paint wondrous shades of circling yellow to draw upon your patience. This virtue will help you to deal with those who have upset you and those who cannot or will not open their eyes to see clearly.

Apply brisk green strokes to demonstrate your talents to the fullest. Acquire the knowledge to present yourself with pride, but without conceit. Modesty is the best practice.

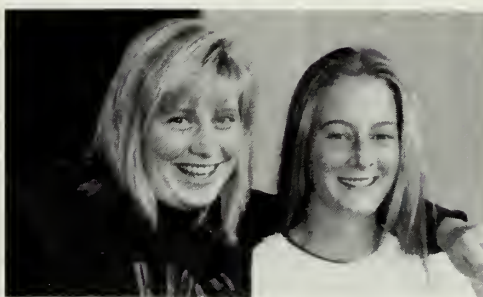

Take your talents and fill them with a floating blue found only in dreams. Dreams are the most important part of existence; without them there is no striving. Stop at nothing to achieve what is rightfully yours. Trust in your honesty to determine the distinction.

For the threatening moments in your illustration, create a soothing arrangement of pinks and purples to lighten your moods, but balance them carefully for too much of either can ruin your art.

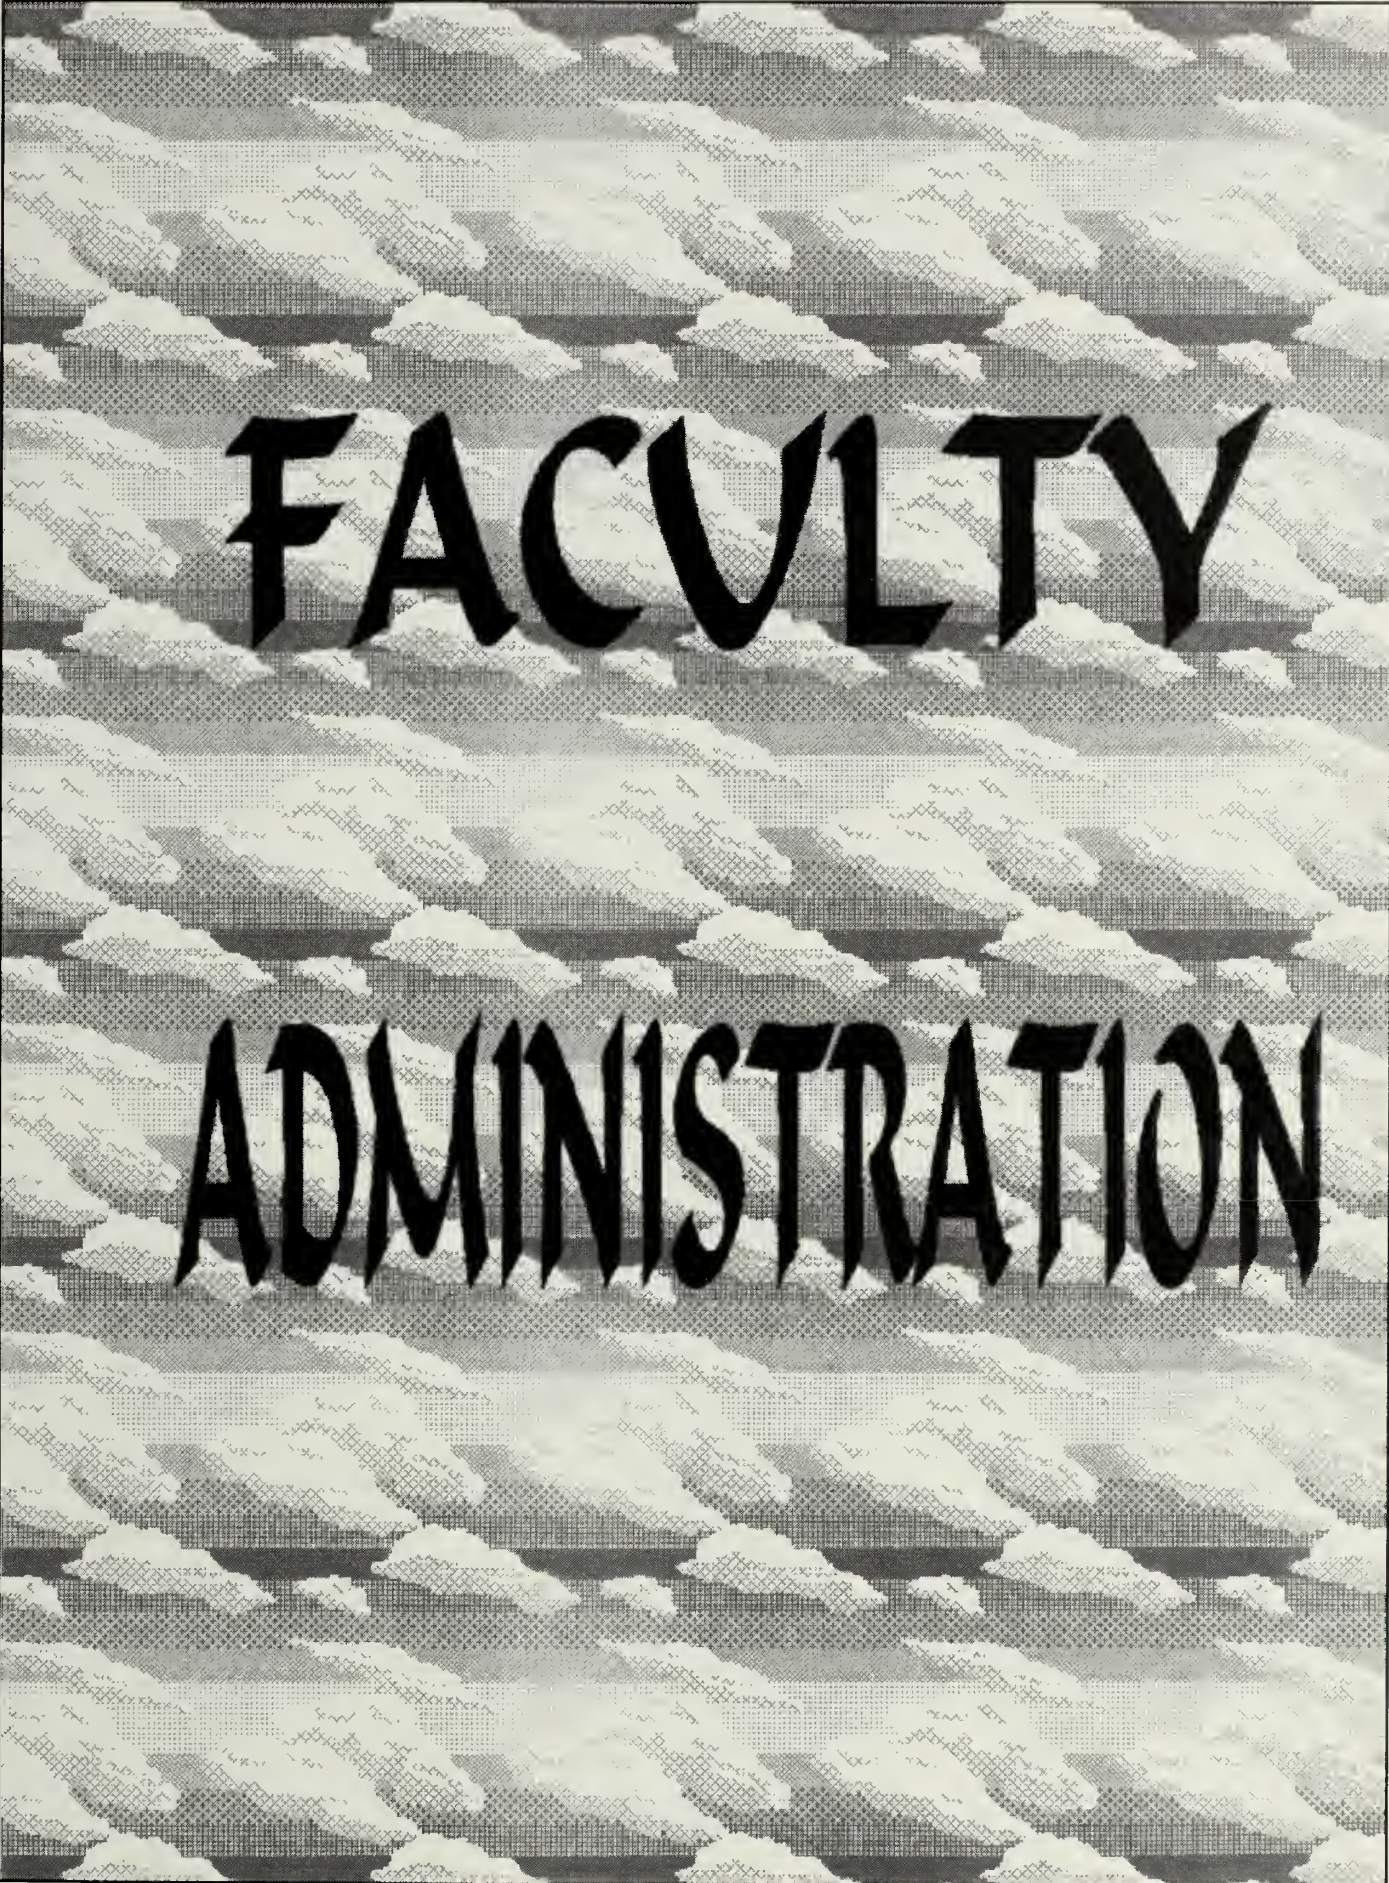

Leave no space empty; cover the blankness of loneliness well, with only the truth. Design your portrait with your new adventure. . . LIFE.

Dan is the man!

No, Mrs. Eddy, no more potato logs.

*May the world hug you today
With its warmth and love
And whisper a joyful tune in your heart
And may the wind carry a voice
That tells you there is a friend
Sitting in another corner of the world
RIGHT NOW
Wishing you well.*

ROMY FERAZZI

Dear Romy,

"Do not fear for your place in the world or in the scheme of things — it is yours and belongs to none other. It is being written daily even as the face of history is being written. All human experience is but a shadow of what is real. Experience that which is truly you and your life will be an easy way before you." from Jehremy Stockwell

Romy Gabrielle
And in the beginning ...
HE took a piece of my heart, willingly offered,
And the essence of a love shared by grandmother and grand daughter
And breathed life into the results.
Thus, allowing a hovering spirit to enter and "Be".
Through the years the God spark grows,
Kindled by love and devotion.
And the beauty once within a tiny baby
Now glows for all the world to see
In my precious child.

*Love,

Adam Michael Johnson

Well, Adam, here you are at the end of the first part of the long journey of life. Watching you grow from an infant to a young man has been a joy for us. You have resisted the temptations and taken advantage of the opportunities. You have made us very happy and very proud of you.

Soon you will begin the second part of the journey, - maybe the toughest part. The choices and decisions will be yours to make from now on.

The rainbow is out there for you. You will recognize it. It is made of education and hard work.

Follow it and you will find your pot of gold!

And remember,- as you set out on life's journey,- follow your dreams, go for the gold, and surely you will soar like an eagle!

With all our love,
Mom and Dad

Jaime.

Time has gone by so quickly. Where has it gone? Wasn't it just yesterday that those big brown eyes looked up at me holding within them the belief that I had all the answers and could make everything all right? If only life were that simple.

We've both grown a lot since then but I still believe that you can achieve anything you put your mind to. You are a beautiful, caring, considerate individual and you have always been a great source of pride, joy and comfort to me. You have become an exceptional woman. I know that you will succeed in whatever avenue life leads you. I will always be here for you as I know you will be for me.

Congratulations.

"Plan to make your dream a reality.
You can be anything you want to be.
You can go anywhere from where you are:
if you are willing to dream big and work hard."

Dear David,
This is the time for reflecting on what has gone before, on all the things that make up childhood and youth, that are a part of you and who you are. It is also a time to look forward, to college, to a career, and to your future. Take your memories with you as you follow your dream, and live life to its fullest. We are so very proud of you. Carpe diem!
Congratulations!

With all our love to our baby girl.

Shelly,

I've written you poems from time to time,
To tell you how we feel.
And in them I tried so hard to explain, how we love you and how we always will.

But this is the most important one, that I've written you so far cause we've watched you grow from playing with dolls to a woman who now needs a car.

Some mornings I've sat
and I've watched you,
as you got yourself ready for school,
and I still can't believe that you came from me and your Mother.
Well, she thinks it's cool.

You've made me and your mother so happy,
As we watched what you have become.
Because you have become what most

A young lady who got the job done!

TO DANNY

In trying to find a photo
as a tribute to our son
We couldn't seem to narrow it down;
We couldn't choose just one.
So we put together a sampling of pictures from your past,
A few that always make us smile;
And help the memories last.

We always thought you were perfect,
a special little boy,
And now you're grown, a fine young man;
and still you bring us joy.
Our hearts are filled with gladness,
and yes, a touch of sadness;
To see you grow, and watch you go;
To start a life of your own.

But remember, Dan, no matter what;
No matter how far you go-
You'll always be our baby boy
We'll always love you so.

I'll catch the sun and never give it back again.
I'll catch the sun and keep it for my own.
And in a world where no one understands I'll take my outstretched hand and offer it to anyone who comes along and tells me he's in need of love,
In need of hope or maybe just a friend. . .
perhaps in time
I'll even share my sun with that new anyone to whom I gave my hand.

Although they are not members of the Class of '94 there are two special people that I would like to recognize: my son, Scott and my daughter, Michelle. They have always supported me when I was teaching, coaching or working on the yearbook and I thank them for their patience and understanding. As June approaches I reflect on their graduations. When Scott graduated from the Boston School for the Deaf the graduates signed "The sun'll come up tomorrow." Yes, the sun always comes up for us. At Michelle's Sacred Heart HS graduation it was; "Through good times and bad times..I'll be on your side. That's what friends are for." For my friends who were there for the bad times, I thank you.

My wish for each one of you is that you'll have that new anyone to share the sun with.

WELCOME TYLER..8/04/93

*This I hope for you, my friend-
 That you strive to be all that you can be, yet never become a copy of another
 That you realize your own qualities, and all that makes you special
 That you open your eyes to the beauty in each day
 That you reach out to others less fortunate than you
 That, by giving, you learn the joy of receiving...
 That you let go of the sadness of the past,
 yet always remember the good moments
 That you learn to accept life as it is, even with its problems and disappointments
 For life is meant to be enjoyed and, at times, endured, but never taken for granted
 And I hope that you will be aware at all times that you are one special person, among all special persons
 And do the best you can.*

*We would like to thank Mrs. Eddy for her patience, sense of humor, tolerance and advice throughout the past few months.
 Over the years her dedication to our school and community has brought together a yearbook that every graduating class will treasure and look back upon with pride. She sacrificed a great deal of her time to make each yearbook special.
 Although we did not always agree, Mrs.
 Eddy stood by whatever decisions we made. We'll never forget how she continued to believe in us. After many years of being the yearbook advisor, she has decided to pursue new endeavors and we wish her the best of luck.*

February 14, 1994

Dear Class of 1994:

My friends, this is it. Everyone always says high school is the best time of your life. We are told to enjoy it because time goes by so quickly. I didn't believe them and yet, look where we are: graduating. High school is over, forever. Nothing will ever be the same again. I hope when you look back you will agree, high school was the best time of your life. Now, each one of us must take another step closer to the inevitable future. Although we leave our high school and our youth behind, the friends and the memories we made there will never be forgotten.

One person that should not be forgotten, at least by the yearbook staff, is Mrs. Donna Eddy. We thank you for keeping your sanity (well almost) for one more year. You will never realize how much you helped us with your ideas and patience. We will miss you greatly.

I would also like to thank the yearbook editors and staff for their dedication and time spent creating this yearbook.

As you look through this yearbook filled with memories, you will hopefully remember the laughter, the friends and good times from your high school years. Then as you close your eyes and dream of the future, may you have visions of the hopes and goals of the years to come. Finally, as you open your eyes, look around. No matter what happened yesterday or what will happen tomorrow, today is what matters-RIGHT NOW.

"Yesterday is but today's memory and tomorrow is today's dream."-The Prophet, Kahil Gibran
I wish each one of you the best.
